

COOKIE POLICY

Effective Date: 2nd January 2025

This Cookie Policy explains how Confi Consultancy Ltd (“we,” “our,” “us”) uses cookies and similar technologies on this website.

By continuing to browse or use our website, you agree to our use of cookies as described in this policy.

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. They help ensure the website functions properly, improve your experience, and provide information that helps us understand how the site is used.

What Cookies We Use

We use the following types of cookies:

- Essential cookies: These are necessary for the website to function and cannot be switched off in our systems. They are usually set in response to actions made by you, such as setting your privacy preferences, logging in, or completing forms.
- Analytics cookies: These help us understand how visitors interact with our website so we can improve performance. All information collected is aggregated and anonymous.
- Functionality cookies: These enable enhanced functionality and personalisation, such as remembering your preferences.

- Marketing cookies (if applicable): If we use marketing cookies in the future, they will track browsing habits to help deliver relevant advertising. We will update this policy if such cookies are introduced.

Managing Cookies

You can manage or block cookies through your browser settings. Please note that blocking some types of cookies may affect your experience of our site.
